

Business Problem Statement

Developing a comprehensive understanding of the online education ecosystem, this project pursues to address various aspects of virtual classrooms. By precisely evaluating its strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and challenges, this project aims to offer key insights to educational institutions, policymakers, and online platforms. The objective is to enhance the efficiency and inclusivity of online education.